

BAILLIAGE PROVINCIAL “SUL DO TEJO”

Week-end in the Alentejo, November 11th and 12th, 2017

5th Anniversary of the Chaîne des Rôtisseurs’ Gastronomy School and, of course, the celebration of São Martinho

Dear Confreres and friends, once again São Martinho (otherwise known as St. Martin, who is, as we all know, the patron Saint of geese, hoteliers, wine makers and drunks, horse riders, knights and even the French... the perfect Saint for the Chaîne) calls us to the Alentejo for a very special week-end of tourism and gastronomy. And we will also be celebrating the 5th year of our Gastronomy School in Évora, meeting and getting to know our students and their teachers.

Our base for the one-night stay will be our favourite hotel, the fantastic 5* “Convento do Espinheiro”, close to Évora, a long-standing member of the Chaîne des Rôtisseurs and of the “Luxury Collection Hotel & Spa”.

Driving from Porto, Lisbon or the Algarve, we will meet in Évora for a welcome lunch on Saturday, November 11th at 1:30pm at the restaurant “O Fialho” where our Confrere Amor Fialho is organising for the Chaîne a lunch in the great tradition of the Alentejo, which has made this family restaurant famous worldwide. Dress Code: Casual, Chaîne Insignia

After lunch, we will check-in our “De Luxe” rooms at the Convento do Espinheiro, where there will be time to rest, explore the hotel and the spa, or anything you might fancy.

Later in the day, we will proceed to the Palácio de Cadaval for a 7pm cocktail at the invitation of TRH Diana and Charles Philippe d’Orleans to meet our students and the teachers of the Chaîne’s Gastronomy School and celebrate with them the 5th anniversary of the school. We will take this convivial opportunity to present them with their diplomas and certificates. Dress Code: Smart Casual, Chaîne collar

After which, we will proceed with dinner in the restaurant of the palace, “Cinco Quinas” to enjoy the exciting creations of their new Chef.
