BAILLIAGE PROVINCIAL “SUL DO TEJO”

Week-end in the Alentejo, November 9th to 11th, 2018

6th Anniversary of the Chaîne des Rôtisseurs’ Gastronomy School and, of course, the celebration of São Martinho

Dear Confreres and friends, once again São Martinho (otherwise known as St. Martin, who is, as we all know, the Patron Saint of geese, hoteliers, wine makers and drunks, horse riders, knights and even the French... the perfect Patron for the Chaîne) calls us to the Alentejo for a very special week-end of tourism, gastronomy and Chaîne conviviality. And we will also be celebrating the 6th year of our Gastronomy School in Évora, meeting and getting to know our students and their teachers.

We will be spending two nights at our favourite hotel, the fantastic 5* “Convento do Espinheiro”, close to Évora, a long-standing member of the Chaîne des Rôtisseurs and of the “Luxury Collection Hotel & Spa”. <https://www.conventodoespinheiro.com/>

Coming from Porto, Lisbon, or from the Algarve, we will all meet at the “Convento do Espinheiro” on Friday November 9th at 10:45 sharp! A small bus will be waiting to take us to the “Herdade de Vale de Arca” near Torrão, one of the leading top-quality olive oil producers in Portugal, for a visit of the olive growths, an olive oil tasting and a welcome lunch. We will be welcome personally by the owner of Vale de Arca, our Confrere Manuel Magalhães. Dress Code: Casual, easy shoes, Chaîne Insignia / Collar for the photo!

<http://www.valedearca.com/>

After lunch, the bus will take us back to Évora and we will check in at the hotel “Convento do Espinheiro” where we will be welcome by our Consoeur and Maître Hotelier Dra. Alexandra Palma, the managing-director of this fantastic hotel. We will have plenty of time to unpack, freshen-up and relax before gathering for a drink at the bar at 7:15pm and go for dinner for 8:00pm at “Fialho” the most traditional restaurant in Évora, where our Confrere Amor Fialho will welcome us for a traditional “São Martinho” dinner. Dress Code: Casual, Chaîne collar

The next morning, Saturday November 10th, after a leisurely breakfast we will proceed by bus at 12 noon to the Michelin* restaurant “L’And Vineyards” in Montemor-o-Novo where Chef Miguel Laffan will offer us a “light” gourmet lunch displaying all his talent.

Dress Code: Casual, Chaîne collar

<http://www.l-and.com/restaurantelandvineyards>

After lunch, we will return to the “Convento do Espinheiro”; there will be plenty of time then and on Sunday morning to visit this beautiful building, make use of their Spa or to visit Évora.

Later in the day, we will proceed by taxi to the “Palácio Cadaval” for a 7pm cocktail at the invitation of TRH Diana and Charles-Philippe d’Orleans to meet our students and the teachers of the Chaîne’s Gastronomy School and celebrate with them the 6th anniversary of the school. Dress Code: Smart Casual, Chaîne collar

After the cocktail, dinner which will be served in a reception room of the Palace.

On Sunday, November 11th, we will gather at 11am in the “Cisterna Room” of the Convento to be given an introduction to the Portuguese Bio Wines with a tasting by our new Confere, oenologist and friend Miles Edlmann <https://www.onehourwine.pt/bio/> before sitting at table to celebrate the end our week-end with a São Martinho Lunch starting at 12h30, prepared specially for the Chaîne by the Chef of the Convento do Espinheiro, Hugo Silva. Dress Code: Casual, Chaîne Insignia

We will leave Évora about 4pm, but if you wish to extend your stay, it can be easily organised.
